Legacy Planning through the Community Foundation

A part of your legacy may include a charitable gift to support the Community Health Center of the North Country in perpetuity. The Community Foundation provides an array of donor options to make giving efficient and simple. Loyal supporters have the ability to maximize their generosity and advance our work for years to come:

Bequests – Contributors may include a provision in their will naming the Community Foundation and the Community Health Center of the North Country Endowment Fund. You may choose to give a specific dollar amount or a percentage of your estate.

Retirement Plans – This option allows you to truly maximize your meaningful gift. You can avoid taxes on retirement plan distributions by naming the Community Foundation as the beneficiary, listing the Community Health Center of the North Country Endowment Fund, or creating your own fund for our community organization.

Life Insurance – List the Community Foundation as the beneficiary and designate the contribution to the Community Health Center of the North Country Endowment Fund. It is an efficient option that maximizes the value of your charitable gift and also allows you to receive a tax deduction.

Other legacy planning options include charitable gift annuities (CGAs), charitable remainder trusts (CRTs) and more. To discuss legacy planning or other charitable giving interests through the Community Foundation, please contact their office at (315) 782-7110.
